The seems at Washington Market was an inspiring one to-day. The big bulleding fairly swarmed with poultry and poultry-seekers. Big plump turkeys looked their handsomest with bright red paper roseties neatly fasten d to ins point immediately over the time-nonored "wishbone." Means of all kinds were attractively dressed and decorated with evergreen and notify, and fat little pigs, pumply with cramberries, held big apples in their months ann fairly begged to be romated.

Turkey was the most popular bird at prices from 16 to 27 cents a pound. Chickens ranged from 16 to 27 cents a pound. Chickens ranged from 16 to 25 cents and geese at 18 to 25.
